

PRIVACY POLICY

Last Updated: June 6, 2023

At Jomha Skrobot LLP, we are committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of our clients and visitors to our website. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your personal information when you access our website or use our services. By using our website, you consent to the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

Information We Collect

1. Personal Information:

- When you visit our website or use our services, we may collect personal information such as your name, email address, phone number, and other contact details.
- We may also collect additional information you provide to us voluntarily, such as when you fill out forms on our website or correspond with us via email.

2. Non-Personal Information:

- We may collect non-personal information automatically as you navigate through our website. This may include your IP address, browser type, device information, and other technical details.
- We may also use cookies and similar technologies to collect information about your browsing activities, preferences, and usage patterns.

Use of Information

1. Personal Information:

- We may use the personal information we collect to respond to your inquiries, provide you with requested services, and communicate with you about our services.
- We may also use your personal information to send you newsletters, updates, or promotional materials related to our firm. You may opt-out of receiving such communications at any time.

2. Non-Personal Information:

- We may use non-personal information for analytical purposes, such as analyzing trends, administering the website, and improving our services.

Disclosure of Information

1. Third-Party Service Providers:

- We may share your personal information with trusted third-party service providers who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or providing services to you. These providers are contractually obligated to keep your information confidential and use it only for the purposes for which we disclose it to them.

2. Legal Requirements:

- We may disclose your personal information if required by law, court order, or governmental regulation, or if we believe such disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, property, or safety, or the rights, property, or safety of others.

Data Security

We implement reasonable security measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. However, no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is 100% secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

Links to Other Websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of those websites. We encourage you to review the privacy policies of any third-party websites you visit.

Children's Privacy

Our website is not intended for use by individuals under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If we become aware that we have collected personal information from a child under 13, we will take steps to delete it.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on our website with the revised date. We encourage you to review this Privacy Policy periodically.

DISCLAIMER:

Disclaimer

This Disclaimer governs your use of the website of Jomha Skrobot LLP ("the Firm"), located at www.jomhalaw.com. By accessing or using the website, you agree to be bound by this Disclaimer. If you do not agree with the terms of this Disclaimer, please refrain from using the website.

1. No Legal Advice

The information provided on this website is for general informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice. The content of this website is not intended to create a solicitor-client relationship between you and the Firm. You should not act or rely upon any information on this website without seeking professional legal advice specific to your situation. The Firm is not responsible for any consequences that may arise from your reliance on the information provided on this website.

2. No Guarantee of Accuracy

While the Firm endeavors to provide accurate and up-to-date information on this website, we make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, about the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability, or availability of the information contained herein. Any reliance you place on such information is therefore strictly at your own risk.

3. No Endorsement

The inclusion of any external links or references on this website does not imply endorsement or recommendation by the Firm. The Firm bears no responsibility for the content or accuracy of external websites linked to or referenced from this website.

4. Confidentiality and Security

Transmission of information through this website is not secure and is not intended to create a confidential or solicitor-client relationship. The Firm cannot guarantee the confidentiality or security of any information transmitted to or from this website.

5. Changes to the Disclaimer

The Firm reserves the right to modify or update this Disclaimer at any time without prior notice. Your continued use of the website following any changes to this Disclaimer constitutes acceptance of those changes.

6. Intellectual Property Rights

All content and materials available on this website, including but not limited to text, graphics, logos, images, videos, and software, are the property of the Firm or its licensors and are protected by applicable copyright and intellectual property laws. Unauthorized use, reproduction, or distribution of any content from this website is strictly prohibited.

7. Jurisdiction

This Disclaimer shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Canada and the province in which the Firm is located. Any disputes arising out of or in connection with this Disclaimer shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that province.
